"Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord."

—1 Corinthians 15:58

Sometimes God will keep you in the fire just to show you, you can stand the pull. Keep standing my brothers and sisters. God has not and will never forget you. Don't resist the pull! Submit to Him, resist the devil (James 4:7). Be encouraged, be motivated and power-up for a blessed and prosperous day in the Lord.

"What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him? For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour."

—Psalm 8:4-5

"You are a gift for God's glory..."

—Agnew

Elder Jesse Clark says, "You have either been recommended for your storm or requested for your storm (Job 1:8; Luke 22:31-32)." Either way, the devil has but one goal—that is to "steal, kill and destroy you (John 10:10)." Jesus is your defense, your peace and your refuge; He came to give you an abundant life. You belong to God and all that you go through is for His glory and to build His kingdom. He is mindful of you and will never forget. Set your eyes and your heart on Him and you will get through what you are going through. Be encouraged, Be motivated and power-up for a blessed and prosperous day in the Lord.

"And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity."

—Luke 13:12

"There is Power in the Name of Jesus to Break every Chain..."

—Tasha Cobbs

What has you bound today? What is causing you to be held captive in your heart and mind? Jesus purposed you to be free and He wants you to be free NOW! The woman who had a spirit of infirmity understood well the power Jesus had to give her freedom. Though she had been bound for 18 years and sought help to be better, nobody but Jesus loosed her from her infirmity. Whatever you are dealing with today, no matter how long you've dealt with what you are dealing with—God desires to help you. Let Him break the chains that are holding you captive and be made whole. Be encouraged, Be motivated and power-up for a blessed and prosperous day in the Lord.

“And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. ...What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?”

—Romans 8:28, 31

There are many reasons that we have—conditions we face, and handicapping circumstances that arise in our lives daily, that may persuade us that there is no hope. We could form excuses and give up our right to live the abundant life. However, there is one truth that should provoke each of us to press forward even though we have faced and will most assuredly face adversity. Everything that happens has purpose. Even in your frustration, if you have Christ and are led by His empowering spirit, there is purpose even in your failures. So, don't fear! Don't fear the enemy, don't fear man, don't fear conditions; don't fear. Who can be against what God is for? If you keep going you will find out. There is no thing, person or circumstance that can stand against God's favor and ability in you. You will succeed and God will meet your need. Be encouraged, Be motivated and power-up for a blessed and prosperous day in the Lord.

"Leaders can complain or do something about it..."

—Bishop Jerry Macklin

God has invested much in you. He has great expectations of you. Jesus prepared you for this journey in Matthew 16:24, "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me." The first step to moving forward from where you are is denying yourself. Push past your ego and your desire to "prove" yourself. You must put self out of the way for Christ so sweetly encourages, if you lose your life for His sake you shall find it. Are you afraid of who you really are? Are you fearful that in Him you are powerful beyond all things that rise up against you? Stop! Examine yourself. You are created for greatness. There is a great treasure on the inside of you that needs to be revealed. Be encouraged, Be motivated and power-up for a blessed and prosperous day in the Lord.

"But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake."

—Acts 9:15-16

"Though Satan is trying to stop me and place my feet on sinking sand... The Lord was there to KEEP ME and He's kept me in the midst of it all..."

—Yolanda Adams

STOP! Whatever you are doing, you will never be enough, you will never do enough, and you will never have enough... That person was not worth any of your time, energy or thoughts. You were born to create and build. As long as you keep trying to prove anything to them you will never reach your destination. God made choice of you in spite of you. No one else matters and that is a fact! He has equipped you to suffer great things for His name's sake. Stop allowing their rejection to hurt you. He has accepted you—the creator of the ends of the earth. He chose you—the master of Heaven and Earth. He works in and through you—the almighty God. STOP! BE LIFTED UP...FOR YOU are a CHOSEN VESSEL UNTO JESUS! Be encouraged, Be motivated and power-up for a blessed and prosperous day in the Lord.

“Submit yourselves therefore to God.
Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.”

—James 4:7

"Is God pleased with your yes; if so, the fight is a fixed fight..."

—April's Wisdom Keys

It seems simple enough to submit to another. Submission is yielding to another's authority. We can all agree to God's sovereignty. In fact, submission is more feasible than resisting. God, unlike our enemy, is not against us. God is for us. He only wants us to humble ourselves under His power and His will—for His ways and thoughts are not our ways and thoughts. Satan is fighting against us and seeks to kill, steal and destroy us. If you have been trying to guard against the enemy's attack on your life, and you feel weary and/or worn, I encourage you to begin again and this time, submit to God first. Once you've submitted to God's reign as Lord of your life, you gain the power and authority you need to resist Satan's attack. Your "yes" to God equips you with all you need to win this war against the enemy. Be encouraged, be motivated and power-up for a blessed and prosperous day in the Lord.

“(For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds;) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;”

—2 Corinthians 10:4-5

"I am of the persuasion that prayer and praise are weapons of spiritual mass destruction."

—Excerpts from Holy Habits: Developing Yourself in Righteousness

By April Dawn Agnew

Whenever I am in warfare, spiritually, and I begin to feel like retreating or as if I have been wounded I check to see how sharp my weapons are. In my book Holy Habits: Developing Yourself in Righteousness I write, “In Gospel Music Artist O’Landa Draper’s song, “Stand up for Right” there is a line the leader says, “...arm yourself with prayer and praise, drive the devil back.” Prayer and praise are weapons of spiritual warfare as I have previously stated that will cause Satan’s plots to become void in your life. When you pray and praise you are making an investment into your spiritual bank account. You are literally planning for your spiritual future. Just as you would spend time investing in a natural bank account before it matures into something of value; you must spend time investing into your spiritual bank if you are going to mature to your full potential and live your best life every day of your life.” Don’t spend another day of your life being defensive, feeling hurt and anger, trying to prove yourself to others—spend that time making an investment into your spiritual bank account and live the victorious and abundant life in Christ. You owe no one any apologies for moving forward, especially if they have made it clear that you are not welcome in their circle. Keep growing on and before you know it, you will overcome. Be encouraged, be motivated and power-up for a blessed and prosperous day in the Lord.

MINI MOTIVATIONAL POWER-UP

“These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of [them], and embraced [them], and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.”

—Hebrews 11:13

“Faith isn't the ability to believe long and far into the misty future. It's simply taking God at His Word and taking the next step.

—Joni Erickson Tada

Do you believe God NOW? This very important question rings in my heart daily. Yes, you believed Him yesterday. Yes, you believed Him to bring you out of previous trouble but do you believe Him now! The eleventh chapter of Hebrews is known as the “hall of faith”. Many of the men and women listed set an example for what it means to trust God in the midst of adverse circumstances. However, verse 13 says, “These all died in faith...” They believed, they embraced, they were persuaded but many died yet knowing that God would do everything He promised—even if they never saw it. How many of us can truly say our faith has developed to that level. We believe Jesus was, is and is to come; but can we believe Jesus wants us to live our best life NOW! If God said it, don't bank on yesterday's faith; activate your faith for your NOW! If you need Him to do it and He promised that He would—don't you STOP until it is done. Be encouraged, be motivated and power-up for a blessed and prosperous day in the Lord.

MINI MOTIVATIONAL POWER-UP

[But the Lord rebukes Jeremiah's impatience, saying] If you have raced with men on foot and they have tired you out, then how can you compete with horses? And if [you take to flight] in a land of peace where you feel secure, then what will you do [when you tread the tangled maze of jungle haunted by lions] in the swelling and flooding of the Jordan?

—Jeremiah 12:5 (AMP)

God has but one solution to our impatience, "trust". If we are showing signs of impatience and frustration, there is a lack of trust in our hearts that needs to be dealt with. No matter how much we try avoiding the race or try to "take flight" when the race gets tough, the wait will never be diminished or erased. The only thing we do is prolong the wait. Just as Jeremiah, many of us today become impatient in our wait. Jesus said if we can believe, all things are possible. Don't avoid your wait time. The wait is a part of the process. God wants to make you and He will if you wait and believe. Don't give out now! There is much more to be done. You have just begun the race. If you can't make it now, then certainly you can't make it to the end. Trust God and keep moving forward because "ALL" things are possible to them that believe. Be encouraged, be motivated and power-up for a blessed and prosperous day in the Lord.

Believe

(be.lieve) verb;

1. Accept (something) as true; feel sure of the truth
2. To have faith, confidence and trust

"Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth."

—Mark 9:23
